11-14-78 (8 P.M.; SRP telephone call to Dorothy Leary):

SRP: "Dorothy, thank you very much for putting me in touch with William Pullin. HBJ will not be able to publish my book because of its length and because of the limited audience for whom it is written. William Pullin was very nice to me and said some very nice things about my book to me and called a friend of his at Academic Press in order to find out to whom I should speak in order to find a publisher. The whole experience was very positive."

DL: "Si, I'm sorry that HBJ is not interested in your book. I'm glad your visit with William Pullin was so positive... so constructive. He's a real sweety. I'm very fond of him."
